JEWISH HERITAGE BUCHAREST - 3.5 HOURS

Driving unique tour

Highlights:

With only about 4,000 members of the Jewish community left in Bucharest today, it is rather difficult to imagine that in 1930 it represented up to 11% of the entire city's population. The Jewish quarter was severely affected by the Fascist pogrom in the 40s, followed by the demolitions initiated in the 80s by the communists, with most streets simply wiped out and 6 synagogues and Jewish temples demolished. Nevertheless, some emblematic buildings have survived and are here to tell their stories.

The tour includes: The Choral Temple, The Great Polish Synagogue, The Holy Union Temple, The Yeshua Tova Synagogue, The Jewish Community Center, The Holocaust Memorial, The Jewish State Theatre and some unique sights: The Beit Hamidrash Synagogue, The Temple Of Faith (Hevrah Amuna), The Elderly Home (Mosaver Zekenim Synagogue), The Malbim Synagogue, The Cahal Grande Synagogue and a brief architectural tour including the most impressive buildings designed by Jewish Architects with Traditionalist, Art Deco, Modernist and even Gothic style.

Upon request, the tour can be extended in order to include one of the two Jewish Cemeteries from Bucharest: The Sephardic Giurgiului Jewish Cemetery graves, The Ashkenazi Filantropia Jewish Cemetery.

Important Info:

The prices do not include the entrance donations (around 20 RON per person) that the synagogues kindly ask from the tourists around.

Starting time: between 09:00 and 10:30 except for Friday starting at 09.00

Operating days: Daily except Saturday

Bookings should be made 24 hours in advance.

Prices:

Mercedes E-Class 170 euro/car/tour, Mercedes V-Class or similar 270 euro/car/tour.
